

LONE BANDIT LOOTS TRAIN OF $700,000

Forged Pass Used to Gain Entrance to Mail Car on Northern Pacific.

MAKES GOOD HIS ESCAPE

Henry Starr, Oklahoma's Reformed Yegman, Remains to Divulge Accomplishments in Unsuccessful Attempt on Banks is Desperately Wounded.

By Associated Press.
MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 10.—Federal and state authorities today were searching for the bandit who held up three clerks on the mail car of Train No. 2 of the North Coast Limited on the Northern Pacific railroad shot and perhaps fatally wounded one man and escaped with $700,000 mail unofficially estimated at $700,000 late last night.

C. U. Strong of Minneapolis was shot three times when he attempted to frustrate the robbery by throwing an iron bar at the bandit. His condition today is critical.

The robber boarded at St. Cloud, Minn., the last stop before reaching Minneapolis 55 miles away. He presented a pass believed to be a forged one and entered the mail car. He conversed with Strong and his associates until the train passed through Dallas 35 miles from here and then pulled his gun.

Members of the train crew did not know of the robbery until the train pulled into the station here.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., Feb. 10.—Two suspects were a loaded train today following a gun battle with officers and are being held in connection with the holding of a mail car on Train No. 2 on the Northern Pacific last night. The men gave the names Buck Allen and Bob Todd and they are from Minneapolis.

HARRISON, Ark., Feb. 10.—Henry Starr, Oklahoma's reformed bandit who turned bank robber again yesterday because he was in debt lay on a cot in the jail here today high as his life. Menzies' losses continued to search for traces of three men with whom Starr tried to escape the People's State bank of Harrisonville. The escaped Starr had been spotted down by W. J. Myers, an officer in the bank. He sent a rifle bullet into Starr's body when the bandits tried to force him into the vault. No trace of the men has been found. Starr steadfastly refused to divulge their names.

Mrs. Starr came today from her home in Oklahoma to try to herd her band, a federal officer said. Starr's wife said she felt sorry for the man who had been so badly shot. She said she had been told that he was in debt and had been shot. She said she had been told that he was in debt and had been shot.

MISS MILDRED E. HOPKINS

WEDS JOSEPH R. BUTTERMORE
A quiet but pretty home wedding was that of Miss Mildred Evelyn Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopkins of South Erie street, and Joseph R. Buttermore, son of John J. Buttermore of East Crawford avenue, solemnized this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the bride's home. Rev. B. W. Hutchinson, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiated, using the ring service. The bride and bridesmaids were unattended and the guest list included only the immediate members of the two families. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue cloth, with hat to match, and a corsage of white roses and orange blossoms. A color scheme of pink and white predominated, with orange blossoms and pink roses decorating the livingroom, where the ceremony took place, and the reception hall.

The wedding is one of unusual interest to Connellsville's younger set of which Mr. and Mrs. Buttermore are popular members. The bride was graduated from the Connellsville high school, a member of the class 1918 and later attended the University of Pittsburgh. Following his graduation from the Connellsville high school, Mr. Buttermore entered State college and later attended the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Mich. He is one of the leading young business men of Connellsville, being assistant manager of the J. J. Buttermore Coal company. Following the ceremony, the young couple left for a wedding trip to New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Atlantic City. They will be at home after March 1 at East Crawford avenue.

James Hoffer.

Miss Marian E. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jones of Indian Creek, and Philip O'Hoffer of Lancaster were married this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the United Brethren church in Lincoln avenue. Rev. J. S. Showers, the pastor, officiated, using the ring service. The bride was gowned in brown champagne. Plink roses formed her corsage. There were no attendants and only the members of the immediate families witnessed the ceremony. Following the services a prettily appointed wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip O'Hoffer in Davidson avenue. Hymnists and songs were rendered. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer left for a wedding trip in Washington, Philadelphia and Lancaster. They will reside in Fairville, N. C., where the bridegroom is in the jewelry business.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jones, parents of the bride, Miss Ada Jones, Miss Jean Hill of Indian Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kitzmiller and daughter, Alice, of Harrisburg.

Gleaners (the Program).

The Gleaners of the Evangelical church at South Connellsville met last evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Bishop at which time a program of songs, recitations, essays and Bible drill was presented.

Degree Team to Meet.

A special meeting of the degree team of Liberty circle of the P. O. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Odd Fellows temple. Mrs. Maude M. Crockett, degree master, of Uniontown will be present. Arrangements for a meeting to which other circles will be invited, to be held on March 2, will be made.

Hope to Cumberland.

Miss Nellie Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Barnhart of Snyder town, and Robert Calvin Hanna, of this city, eloped to Cumberland Wednesday and were married. The bridegroom made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Eliza Leach of South street, and is employed by the Connellsville Laundry company.

Dinner at Meyersdale.

Mrs. Frank Hoffman and Miss Mary Hocking gave a large dinner party last evening at their home in Meyersdale in honor of their niece, Miss Emma Hocking, daughter of her father, John H. Hocking. Miss Hocking has chosen March 20 as the date for her marriage.

W. A. Edie Class Meets.

About 15 members attended the regular meeting of the W. A. Edie Bible class of the First Presbyterian church held Thursday evening in the church. During the business meetings plans were discussed for raising the $200 fund pledged to the church. It was also decided to organize in connection with the class a Vesp. Pocket League, the object being to see that each member carries a vest pocket Testament. A membership committee for the next four weeks was appointed as follows: William Brown, chairman; J. C. Grossman, George Campbell, Al. J. Cummings, S. G. Hall, W. L. Wright, J. C. Whiteley, R. E. Wilhelm, W. A. Bishop and I. W. Myers. The chairman of the reception committee for the next meeting is Clayton Campbell.

Thank-offering service.

The annual thank-offering service of the Woman's Missionary society of the United Brethren church was held Thursday evening in the church, with Mrs. G. E. Leonard, the president, in charge. The program rendered was as follows: Singing, "Come Thou Almighty King"; Scripture lesson, Matt. 6: 24; prayer, Rev. J. S. Showers; "The Thank-offering Department," by the leader; "The Necessity of Prayer in an Acceptable Thank-offering," Miss Della Schrock; piano diet, Georgia Tipton and Lillian Osterweiser; readings, "Mrs. Pickens' Missionary Box," Gertrude Marietta; reading, "A Calvary Polkanna," Mrs. W. H. Kooser; vocal solo, Mrs. L. G. Hoover, with Mrs. George Santmyer at the piano; reading, "A Rose of the Highway," Laura Belle Hamman; reading, "Without Spot," Mrs. G. E. Leonard; presentation of thank-offering boxes; consecratory prayer. The offering amounted to $50. Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. J. L. Thomas, Mrs. H. L. Krepps, Mrs. J. S. Showers, Mrs. A. G. Dunton, Mrs. J. W. Cole, Mrs. I. Grant and Mrs. C. G. Baimes.

Priscilla Club Elects Officers.

A well attended meeting of the Priscilla Sewing circle was held last evening at the home of Miss Grace Means at Poplar Grove. During the business meeting an allotment of sewing for the Cottage State hospital was received, sorted and packed for delivery. Plans were also discussed for a covered dish luncheon to be held in April at the home of Mrs. Roy B. Otto and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Roy B. Otto; vice president, Mrs. C. W. Helbeck; secretary, Mrs. Clayton Campbell; and treasurer, Mrs. Harry Bartlett. At the close of the business session, a well appointed luncheon was served, covers for twelve being laid. George Washington appointments prevailed, with a small cherry tree centering the table. Favors were small red hatchets. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sparks at Poplar Grove.

Musicals at Dunbar.

A very successful musical was held last evening in the Dunbar Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Westminster Guild of the church. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Bertha M. Douds and included selections by Carl T. Andine, director of music at the Connellsville high school; Misses Harriet Nelson, Madeline Warner, Elizabeth McHenry, Olive Grace Frost and Paul Spear, William Hardy and Bernette Wythe. Miss Thelma of Fayette City won the reader.

Will Aid in Mission Work.

At a meeting of the Oward class of the Methodist Protestant church held last evening in the church it was voted to pay dues-hall of the missionary obligation of the society to missions and was decided by the class to the Westminster remembrance of the church of Westminster. Mr. Mrs. J. H. Lambertson, the class teacher, was the leader. Refreshments were served.

Wed at Cumberland.

Charles Wesley Gindesberger of Berlin and Edith Carrie Hostetter of Meyersdale and Louis Vincent Perry and Bessie Marguerite Thomas, both of Uniontown, took off their vows at Cumberland.

Celebrates 80th Birthday.

Mrs. J. B. Reed, a wife of Rev. Reed of Uniontown, celebrated her 80th birthday yesterday at her home. The celebration was different from any that has been previously held in that there were four generations present, including Mrs. Elsie Hopwood and Mrs. Hopwood's daughter, Mrs. Fred D. Munson and her nine-months-old son, John I. Munson, of Connellsville. An elaborate dinner served at noon was a feature of the day. Covers were laid for immediate members of the family. Mrs. Reed enjoys her usual good health and was one of the happiest members of the family present at the celebration. Rev. and Mrs. Reed resided at Laurel Hill for a number of years, where the former was pastor of the Presbyterian church. Among the guests were Mrs. Elsie Hopwood, Mrs. Elsie Phillips, Uniontown; Mrs. H. J. Beal, Dawson, daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Reed; and Mrs. J. G. Cook and Mrs. W. S. Huffman, sisters of Mrs. Reed, of New Alexandria.

Jeffries-Rutherford.

George Rutherford of Hill Lake and Ella Jeffries of Jefferson township were married in Uniontown.

Maceabre Women to Meet.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Benevolent Association of the Maceabres will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Odd Fellows hall. Refreshments will be served.

Enjoyable Party.

A delightful party was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Firestone in South Connellsville. An enjoyable evening was spent at music and valous games. Out of town guests were Mrs. Bessie Hough and Eva Hiers of Pennsville, Mrs. Helms and daughter of Scotland. A delicious lunch was served.

HAGAN'S "Pineapple-Lemon Special"

THIS WEEK END.

Can you think of anything more delicious than a dish of sliced pineapple—the kind you get along in June just after the first ripe fruit of the season "comes in"?

Well how about this combination? Hawaii's most luscious fruit. California's famous "Sun Kiss" lemons. And the quality of Hagan's Ice Cream.

"Surprise Brick" this week and Washington's Birthday Specials next.

ITCHY PIMPLES CAUSED PAIN

On Face. Large and Red. Cuticura Healed.

"My trouble started on my face. At first it took the form of little red spots but later it turned into pimples which were large and red. They feasted and caused much pain, and were very annoying, being itchy and always burning."

"The trouble lasted for about one year. I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and began using them and after about three or four months it was healed." (Signed) Miss Julia Carroll, 117 S. Pittmore Ave., Scranton, Pa.

Use Cuticura for all toilet purposes. Agents: Bigelow & Co., 117 S. Pittmore Ave., Scranton, Pa. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Cuticura is the only skin medicine that is safe and sure.
